Accelerated guarantee issuance with Virtusa Helio clause checker

virtusa

The absence of an efficient process for guarantee vetting in banking sector results in reliance on email exchanges and error prone, time-consuming human review. As a result, guarantee vetting often experiences delays, causing stakeholder frustration. Additionally, fragmented collaboration hampers the process workflow and interrupts communication and coordination among stakeholders.

Introducing Virtusa Helio clause checker, a Virtusa solution powered by genAI on Google Cloud, that streamlines guarantee vetting and fosters seamless collaboration. With Virtusa Helio clause checker, businesses can streamline the guarantee vetting process through automated workflows to eliminate excessive email chains, expedite processing times, and ensure efficient review and approval by all stakeholders on a centralized platform. Virtusa Helio clause checker not only streamlines the process but also unlocks the potential for accelerated guarantee issuance, leading to improved operational efficiency and enhanced customer experience.

Why clients are choosing Virtusa

Virtusa Helio clause checker offers a future of faster, more accurate vetting, and a streamlined stakeholder collaboration experience, with:

Increased speed

Accelerated guarantee vetting with automated workflows, eliminating excessive emails and expediting processing times for faster guarantee issuance.

Ensured accuracy

Reduce human errors and mitigate financial risk with genAI powered contextual screening.

Saved time

Stakeholders can efficiently track progress and make informed decisions without analyzing scattered email threads.

Eliminate financial risk and enhance collaborative communication with stakeholders

Virtusa Helio clause checker delivers accurate and accelerated vetting by:

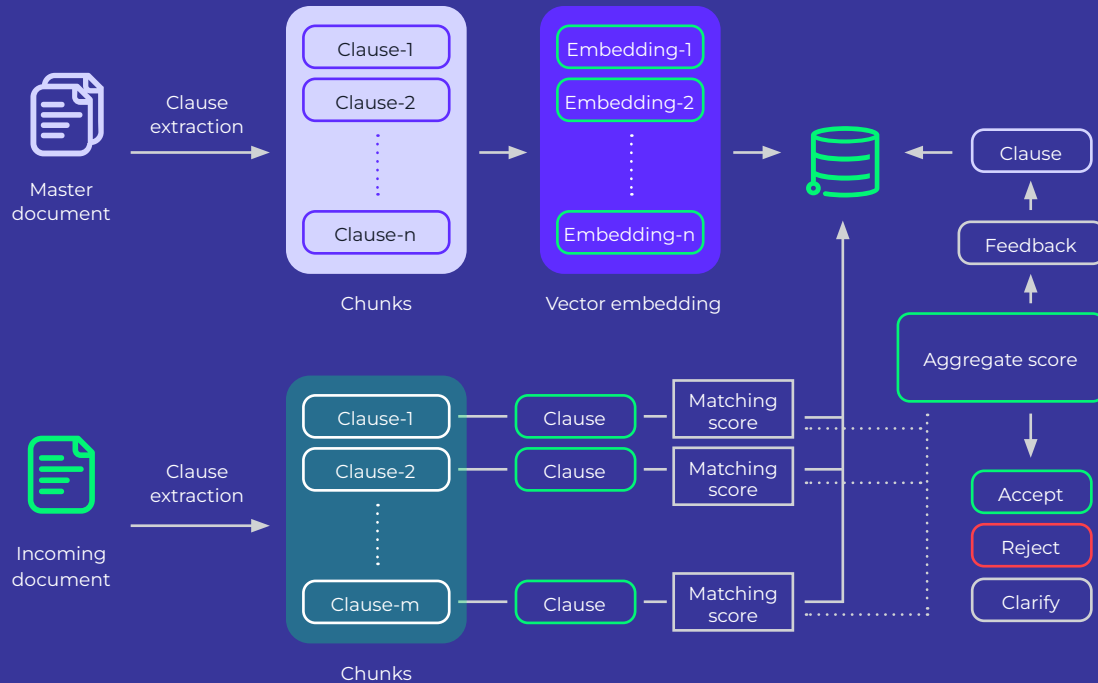

Automating document routing into one centralized platform for stakeholder review and approval.

Minimizing human error by leveraging LLMs to intelligently analyze context for high-accuracy discrepancy detection within guarantee clauses.

Ensuring consistent accuracy by identifying and alleviating missed details and financial risk.

Solution overview

Virtusa Helio clause checker incorporates user feedback during the review process. The system learns from this feedback, refining its understanding of relevant clauses and improving its accuracy over time.
